

THEATRE APPRECIATION -CLASS CONDUCT AGREEMENT

Be on time, prepared, and ready to work each class.

Be aware and knowledgeable of the Class Schedule, Assignments, Due Dates and Requirements and where to find them.

Be organized. Keep up with all handouts and assignments of the class.

Keep all graded assignments.

Be respectful, kind and collaborative towards the others in the class and the instructor.

Be quiet, supportive and attentive to those who are presenting or performing.

Be honest with words, deeds, actions, on all class assignments and activities.

Be the original and only author of your work.

Be brave and willing to try new activities and new ways of thinking.

Behave and speak appropriately within the ACC classroom, online and on campus.

Be a hard-working student. Master the class and the material.

Be open to learning from the past, understanding the present and observing new trends and concepts for the future.

By signing this paper, you agree to adhere to this Conduct Agreement for Theatre Appreciation-DRM 1310 and all ACC student behavior policies. Failure to do so is grounds for disciplinary action and/or dismissal from the course.

Signature

date